

WE CLAIM:

A fastening system comprising:

1. A Main Fastener, typically installed in a hidden recess in a rail or such like, such that the fastener secures the rail against both vertical and horizontal loading without penetrating said rail;
2. A Locking Fastener, securing the Main Fastener to the aforementioned rail or such like, such that the Main Fastener cannot loosen due to "backing out", vibrational stress, torsion or other stresses.